MISS ALICE SEES JAPANESE WRESTLE President's Daughter Entertained By Some of the Most Famous Champions. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

TOKIO, October 22.—One of the most interesting features of Miss Alice Sees' visit to Japan occurred at the United States legation in this city. There was a continual round of pleasure, a reception, music by a military band and an exhibition of wrestling such as few Americans have ever had the privilege of witnessing.

After a luncheon admirers of the strong-woman were given an exhibition of wrestling by several of the most noted champions in the empire. It is safe to say that with the college men not a point was lost nor did they fail to show by their applause their appreciation of the skill and strength displayed by the performers, which at times ran the American game of foot-ball a close second.

NEW YORK, October 22.—Robert Abbott, of Yale, defeated Ellis Knowles, of Yale, in the intercollegiate golf tournament at Garden City, L. I., yesterday, 2 up to 2 to play, thus winning the championship.

Captain Cooney of Princeton.

CAPT. COONEY

This is a recent picture of Captain Cooney, of the Princeton eleven. The "Tigers" are badly crippled at present as three of their best players are on the sick list, but when all the conditions are in their favor, Princeton will make a fine showing. Captain Cooney has been doing magnificent work at practice in carrying the ball through the scrub territory with the entire team hanging to him. Pfeiffer, one of the strongest players, has been suffering from a bruised leg and probably will not don his foot-ball togs again until some time next week.

KEEN INTEREST IN COMING FIGHT

Contest Between "Techs" and Carolina Next Saturday Will Be Fierce.

BOTH HAVE FINE TEAMS

"Techs" Very Heavy and Fast, While Carolina Has Envious Record.

Keen interest is felt in the contest on the gridiron here next Saturday between the Virginia Polytechnic Institute and the University of North Carolina.

The V. P. I. has the heaviest and fastest team in years. Its weight helped a great trial in the splendid victory recently achieved against the Army at West Point.

Following is the line-up and weight of the "Techs":

Right end—Webster, 170 pounds. Right tackle—Wilson, 200 pounds. Right guard—Duffield, 190 pounds. Center—Sills, 185 pounds. Left tackle—Kiddings, 190 pounds. Left guard—Hines, 185 pounds. Left end—Lewis (captain), 200 pounds. Quarter back—Nutter, 165 pounds. Right half back—Tredwell, 165 pounds. Left half back—Carpenter, 190 pounds. Full back—Harlan, 190 pounds.

Carolina has a strong team this year, and are counting on a victory from Virginia in the Thanksgiving Day game. Showing against Pennsylvania last Saturday week was very fine, as Pennsylvania is said to be very strong this year. At all events, one of the greatest foot-ball contests of the season is expected next Saturday, when the Virginia Polytechnic Institute and North Carolina face each other. Certainly, with Carpenter, Tredwell and Robertson in the game, the public is assured of a spectacular game, full of long punts and plenty of end running.

SPORTING SMALL TALK

George Gardner acknowledges that his brother, Jimmy, can't do 133 pounds, and there is little chance of his boxing Battling Nelson.

Jimmy Briggs, the Chelsea (Mass.) lightweight, and Arthur Cote, of Maine, have been matched to meet for fifteen rounds on October 27th before the Biddleford A. C., of Biddleford, Me.

The twenty-round bout between Billy ("Honey") Melody, the Boston welterweight, and George Peterson, the California fighter, which was to have been brought off before the Spokane Athletic Union, of Spokane, Saturday night, has been postponed for a week at the request of the fighters.

Boomer Weeks, the heavyweight, of Spokane, who recently defeated Wrestler Frank Gotch in a limited-round boxing bout at Spokane, has quit the ring. Weeks is a fireman in the Spokane Fire Department, and it was a case of quit fighting or give up his position, so he concluded to do the former.

It is said that the reason of Artful's retirement before the running of the Brighton Cup was a bowed tendon, and that it is not certain that the mare will ever come back to the races.

Willie Hoppe, of Boston, has issued a challenge to George Stossen for an eight-teen-inch ball line billiard match at either 1,000 or 2,000 points, for a purse of $1,000, each player to contribute $500.

The Athletic Committee of the Chicago A. A. has decided to abandon the scheme for a foot-ball team this fall, owing to the failure to secure games for the club eleven. The scheme of the club eleven.
